How has the Fund performed?

This section tells you how the Fund has performed over the past one year. Returns are after Fund expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns.

It's important to note that past performance doesn't tell you how the Fund will perform in the future. Your actual after-tax return will depend on your personal tax situation.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in the Fund at inception would have $1,062 as of March 31, 2012. This is equal to an annual compounded return of approximately 3.6%.

Year-by-year returns

The following chart shows how the Fund performed in each calendar year shown. The Fund's value decreased in one of these years.

How risky is it?

When you invest in a Fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. Investors Group has rated this Fund's risk as medium.

For a description of other risks, see the Fund's simplified prospectus.

Are there any guarantees?

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

Who is this Fund for?

You should consider investing in this Fund if you are:

- looking for long-term capital growth;
- looking to diversify your portfolio internationally; and
- comfortable with the risks associated with foreign equity investments.

Before you invest in any Fund, you should consider how it would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on the Fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the Fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your Fund in a non-registered account, Fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

Pending Fund Merger

This Fund proposes to merge into IG Templeton International Equity Class, effective on or about June 22, 2012. A meeting to obtain approval from Fund investors in respect of the merger will be held on or about June 18, 2012. A prospectus amendment has been filed and is available on our website at www.investorsgroup.com or the SEDAR website at www.sedar.com.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell securities of this series of the Fund. The Fund offers other retail series to purchasers. Ask your Consultant about whether other series may be suitable for you. The fees and expenses are different for each series.

Sales charges

You may have to choose a sales charge option when you buy the Fund. Ask your Consultant about the pros and cons of the available options.

Sales charge option	What you pay		How it works
	in per cent (%)	in dollars ($)
No load	0.0%	$0	• There is generally no redemption fee payable when selling securities acquired under the no-load purchase option.

Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. These expenses reduce the Fund's annual return.

For the six-month period ended September 30, 2011, the Fund's annualized expenses totalled 4.36% of its value (about $44 for every $1,000 invested).

Trailing commission

The trailing commission is paid to your Consultant by Investors Group out of fees received from the Fund. The commission pays for services provided for as long as you hold the Fund. The commission is based on the value of your investments and is paid as follows:

- No greater than 0.69% per year (about $7 per year for every $1,000 invested).

Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you sell or switch securities of the Fund.

Fee	What you pay
Excessive switching fee	If you switch into, or out from, the Fund so often that in our view your switches could have a detrimental effect, we may charge you up to 3% of the amount you switch.
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the amount you sell or switch within 90 days of investing in the Fund. This fee is payable to the Fund.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund securities within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
